New Member Event:

DC's Struggle for First Class Citizenship

Tuesday, February 3, 2009

6-8pm

Busboys & Poets

1390 V St NW

Washington, DC 20009

Speakers:

Eugene Kinlow, Public Affairs Director, DC Vote

Ann Loikow, Coordinator, DC Statehood--Yes We Can! Coalition

Is statehood a real possibility for the District? Will DC citizens finally get a voting representative in Congress? Why is Utah in the equation? Do senators matter? Join us for a lively and informed discussion about how to bring first class citizenship to the District of Columbia.

***Event is free and open to the public.*****

The venue is an incubator for activism and community connection. It is a full service restaurant so you can order dinner during the program if you like. Parking is available on the street. Metro (U Street/Cardozo) is nearby and so is the Reeves Center parking garage.

Sponsored by the League of Women Voters of the District of Columbia, founded in 1920 from the struggle to get the vote for women, and actively supporting District self-government and enfranchisement since 1938.
